Ic: FutureNow! Metropolregion Nordwest - Knowledge transfer to society

Wednesday 13 November 2024 15:30 (1h 30m)

In our project FutureNow! we are developing formats for knowledge transfer to society. Anybody from AWI can participate in our actions and many have already. We take away the hassle of organizing events and locations, provide material and presentations to make it as easy as possible for anyone interested to engage in science communication. During this session I will introduce you to our didactics & methods, train you in using them yourself, present you participation opportunities and offer room for you to share your own best practices from (methods, successful slides and tools, etc.).

Presenter: SUCKOW, Björn

Session Classification: Breakout Sessions
