Contribution ID: 8   Type: Session 1

Seeing the trees in the forest (and other places)

Why do we want to map trees and what are the obstacles on the road? And what is a tree by the way? This introductory talk will discuss some of the challenges, opportunities and applications of tree detection and delineation in very high resolution image data.

Primary author: Prof. FEILHAUER, Hannes (Universität Leipzig)

Session Classification: Opening Remarks + Keynote