

Bar Camp Session

Tuesday 30 September 2025 17:00 (1h 45m)

No Pre-set Agenda

This session follows no rigid schedule—we go with the flow. You and your peers propose the topics, and together, you decide which ones to explore.

Diverse Voices Welcome

Everyone has a voice here. Share your passions, dive into dynamic discussions, and learn from the experiences of your peers.

Bring a Topic If You Want To...

- * Ask a question you're seeking answers to
- * Explore a challenge you're currently facing
- * Share an innovative solution you've discovered
- * Brainstorm ideas with others in a collaborative space

BarCamp topics might center on teaching practices, navigating the balance between everyday work and teaching commitments, experimenting with different instructional settings or tools—and much more. The possibilities are as open as the session itself.
