

Science Fair with Poster Session

During our Science Fair all IPs will present hands-on science - interesting products, models, figures etc. as well as facts and figures on interesting projects on posters.

In addition some administrative support units will present themselves and will be happy to answer questions.

Snacks and drinks will be served during the Science Fair.

Session Classification: Marketplace